Here's the note I sent them on Thursday. They didn't respond until 3:44 pm, after people had left for the day and the weekend for some – their response was, "We would like copies of what you can provide today, if possible."

Subject: aldicarb

Hi Shanta and Debra – After we sign our aldicarb documents they'll have to go through our out-processing which is another QA/QC step in HED, and will take some time. We can provide you with signed documents today which have not gone through out-processing, but there may be changes required after the out-processing team does their review. Bottom line, we'll need to know now if you want final documents ready-to-go today. And I think we'll also need to have a date for the BEAD memo to reference (right team?) Please let us know your plans ASAP. Thanks. Mike
